Dee,

I've been locked out of my computer most of the day. These darn "smart cards" are so smart nobody knows how to fix them when something goes wrong. There's a lot more to this story, but I'll save that for another day.

I've discussed the NEPA situation with John and his advice given the situation is for us (BLM) to issue a CX for the Withdrawal Action on a stand-alone basis. I'm scouring the Exchange EA right now for the Plan Consistency/Conformance language, and I'll just use that in our CX. I may need your help in other areas, but as of now there is no need to involve the Field Office in a review of the EA.

BLM should still be added to the Federal, State, and Local Agencies consultation and coordination list in the Exchange EA since you have been in contact with us regarding the withdrawal issue - and our WO folks will be looking for that.

Respectfully,

Hi Steve

I am so confused. Which do you want me to do:

1. Put BLM on the mailing list to review the EA;
2. Contact BLM directly to go over the withdrawal?
3. Or both?

Do we have to wait for them to review the EA and respond back to us?

Hi Dee,

Just found the page I was looking for re: Consultation and Coordination (P. 49)

BLM isn't listed. We need to be. You can certainly count the letter/request sent in 2012 and subsequent communication as part of that, so it will be legitimate to add us in to the list immediately. As for our review of the draft EA, I think that needs to be done at the Field Office level.

Subject: Corrected Items for Sunshine CG Withdrawal Revocation

Hi Steve
Here are all of the corrected documents that you asked for. We have not released the EA to the public yet, so this is the draft. We plan to release the EA to the public within the next two weeks. The withdrawal revocation is listed on page 38. Let me know of any additional edits.
Thanks!
Dee
